S (Strength): Experienced as well as young, energetic & dynamic faculty; Well equipped IT Lab; Rich collection of text and reference books; Special lectures and tutorial classes; career counselling and placement programme; Departmental journal and wall magazine.

W (Weakness): Lack of permanent faculty; Inadequate fund allocation for expansion of Lab and acquisition of modern teaching–learning aids; Insufficient budgetary support for books and journals.

O (Opportunity): Scope for establishment of departmental library; to utilize the IT lab along with the faculty for conducting allied courses and also for undertaking research projects.

C (Challenge): To impart quality and value education so that more number of students can go for PG and/or Professional courses ; to develop the application skill to enable the students for employment in general and self employment in particular and last but not the least, to motivate and train the students in entrepreneurship development so that they can establish their own business unit and become a future industrialist of the country.

Future Plans: To Introduce Post Graduate course on regular basis; To arrange for short term On-the-job training (Internship) in collaboration with the industry; To conduct Professional/job oriented courses; To organise greater number of special lectures and seminars for the students; To Interact regularly with the Professional Institutes for improvement of students knowledge, skill and thereby employment opportunity.
