

Sarsuna College

NOTICE

03.04.2021

The college premises has been requisitioned by the district administration from 03.04.21 to 12.04.21 for the ensuing general election. The teachers and staff may come to the college during the said period as and when required for the official purpose. The date and time restrictions of the Librarian and the non-teaching staff for attending the college are hereby withdrawn for the aforesaid period. Students are not allowed to come to the college during this period unless otherwise asked for. However, the present working schedule will be followed again from 13.04.21.

Principal
Sarsuna College